<sup>2</sup>FRP Lunch: free or reduced-price school lunch offered through the National School Lunch Program.

<sup>3</sup>Lost federal dollars are calculated as the additional federal meal reimbursements a district would have received during the 2008-09 school year if participation in free/reduced-price breakfast equaled participation in free/reduced-price lunch.

* indicates that no students were classified as FRP-eligible in October 2008.

* indicates that no students were classified as FRP-eligible in October 2008.

**indicates that the recorded number of FRP breakfast participants exceeds the number of FRP-eligible students recorded in October 2008.

Data provided by the California Department of Education. These values reflect average daily participation in the School Breakfast Program and National School Lunch Program for public school districts during the 2008-09 school year.

<sup>2</sup>FRP Lunch: free or reduced-price school lunch offered through the National School Lunch Program.

* indicates that no students were classified as FRP-eligible in October 2008.

**indicates that the recorded number of FRP breakfast participants exceeds the number of FRP-eligible students recorded in October 2008.

* indicates that no students were classified as FRP-eligible in October 2008.

**indicates that the recorded number of FRP breakfast participants exceeds the number of FRP-eligible students recorded in October 2008.

Data provided by the California Department of Education. These values reflect average daily participation in the School Breakfast Program and National School Lunch Program for public school districts during the 2008-09 school year.
